-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 24 May 2006.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1 and 3, drawn to a pneumatic tire and method of making wherein a belt layer is composed of a plurality of strip pieces whose collective circumferential length is less than the circumferential length of the belt by less than the circumferential length of one strip piece with equal circumferential spaces between adjacent strip pieces.

Group II, claim(s) 2 and 4, drawn to the combination of Group I with a second inner belt layer whose strip piece sides are butted against each other with no circumferential space between strip pieces.

Group III, claim(s) 5 and 7, drawn to a pneumatic tire and method of making wherein a belt layer is composed of a plurality of strip pieces whose sides are butted against each other with no circumferential space between strip pieces and having an original circumferential length less than the circumferential length of the belt layer which is then expanded to be equal to the circumferential length of the belt layer.

Group IV, claim(s) 6 and 8, drawn to the combination of Group III with a second outer belt layer whose strip piece sides are butted against each other with no circumferential space between strip pieces and whose original circumferential length is equal to the circumferential length of the second outer belt layer.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: a) Groups I-II have a different special technical feature than Groups III-IV; b) the subject matter common to Groups I and II does not distinguish over the prior art, as evidenced by Suda et al. (6,613,177 B1: embodiment of Figure 7 with or without the margin rubber 1b, col. 4 line 19-col. 7 line 41) and Yovichin et al. (7,344,614 B2), and therefore cannot serve as a common special technical feature; and c) the subject matter common to Groups II-IV does not distinguish over the prior art, as evidenced by the admitted prior art (specification paragraphs 0004-0005) in view of European Patent Application 0 091 542 A1 (equivalent to Japanese Patent Application 58-187335 A cited by applicants: teaches to make tire reinforcing layers slightly smaller than final diameter and then expand to final dimension in order to reduce tedious manual work such as trimming), and therefore cannot serve as a common special technical feature.

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Adrienne C. Johnstone whose telephone number is (571) 272-1218. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 1:00PM-5:00PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Richard Crispino can be reached on (571) 272-1226. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
